OFFICE OF THE CENSUS SUPERINTENDENT IN MYSORE, RACE VIEW, HIGH GROUND,

Bangalore dated ..... 7th May 193 1

FROM

M. VENKATESA IYENGAR, ESQ., M.A.,
CENSUS SUPERINTENDENT IN MYSORE,
BANGALORE.

9 MAY 1931

To

N. Madhava Rao, Esq., B.A., B.L.,
Chief Secretary to the Govt. of His Highness
the Maharaja of Mysore, Bangalore.

SIR.

I have the honour to address Government on the subject of the castes among Hindus and Sects among Christians which should be tabulated at the present Census

Flag 'U'

In the Census of 1921, 34 castes of Hindus whose population according to the Census of 1911 was not less than 1 per mille were sorted for separately and shown in the tables and all the other castes grouped together as "others". In the instructions for the present Census first issued, the Census Commissioner wanted all the castes to be sorted for whether all of them were to be tabulated or not. As a measure of retrenchment he has since directed selection of castes in each province according to circumstances. Of the 34 castes separately shown in 1921 in the State, one caste, namely, "Komati" showed a very small population, namely, 3,116 or [illegible] per mille. This caste may be omitted on the present occasion and the other 33 castes sorted for and tabulated.

As regards Christians, the Census Commissioner proposes to tabulate them as "Catholics," "Romo-syrian", "Other Syrians", and "others." The same division may be suitable for the State also; but as it is possible that some sects with a large following in the State would like to know their strength and as the adoption of the classification proposed by the Census Commissioner in the State would provide separate columns for such minority sects as the "Syrians" and "Romo-syrians," while throwing together large groups like "Anglicans" and "Methodists" as "OTHERS", it seems better to sort separately for the following groups also Anglican, Methodist, and South Indian United Church.

4)

There will thus be six sects separately sorted for and tabulated, all the rest being shown together as "Others."

I request that approval of Government may kindly be obtained to the above proposals.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

M Venkatesalyengar

Census Superintendent.
